

Brides bowled over

THE barefoot bowls phenomenon has taken bowling clubs all over Australia by storm, and it's really not that hard to see why. Combine competition, a sparkling Aussie summer's day, beer served at affordable prices, music and a group of people, and you've created the perfect environment for an afternoon of fun.

Roll a ball down the green, have a drink, have a feed and have a laugh.

Kingscliff Beach Bowls Club has found a way to combine this fantastic and growing social sport with weddings by offering the wedding guests the opportunity to play Barefoot Bowls while they are waiting for the bride and groom to have their photos taken.

How's that for a wedding with a difference?

Kingscliff Beach Bowls Club brides and grooms have nothing but positive things to say about their wedding day experience, says functions manager Helen Gardiner.

"We even have a wedding planner on staff to help you organise the ceremony, decorations, entertainment, flowers, photography, guest accommodation and even your wedding cake, which are now baked in house!" she said.

THERE is something elegant about a wedding and reception framed with stunning views in an award-winning setting and that's what the Twin Towns Clubs and Resorts are all about.

Twin Towns Clubs and Resorts, incorporating Tweed Events, were honoured at the 2013 Australian Bridal Industry Awards, winning the Resort Reception category.

No stranger to awards, Twin Towns Clubs and Resorts has a long history of wins and nominations for their wedding services and facilities, so you can be assured your special day is a success.

The exciting news is that they now have five brand-new state of the art wedding facilities coming online from December. Bookings are being taken now.

The new Horizons room has an enclosable balcony with majestic views, while the River and Bay rooms boast glass walls delivering stunning views of the harbour and ocean.

These rooms will without doubt be one of the most sought-after locations on the coast - be sure to contact the Twin Towns wedding team early to avoid missing out.

Located right on the border of Coolangatta, Queensland and Tweed Heads, NSW the boat harbour in front of Twin Towns is a wedding photographer's haven.

Complete with a wooden boardwalk, steps down to the water's edge and luscious planted trees, you don't need to go far to find a perfect photo or ceremony location when holding your wedding reception at Twin Towns.
